Cometh the hour, cometh Sidney

Next Friday 5 September at 7pm, CTC member Sidney Schuman is aiming to set a world 'hour' record at the Olympic velodrome in London. It will be his 84th birthday exactly a week later, so the record is in the '80-84' age bracket. Sidney hatched the plan for his latest challenge as he regained fitness after two serious crashes. Spectators are welcome to come along and cheer Sidney on.
